Operation Global Rain is a grassroots movement of Seventh-day Adventists around the globe, coming together for ten days this summer to pray for the outpouring of the Holy Spirit. The purpose of these ten days is to pray for revival and reformation through the power of the Holy Spirit, to put away sin, and to come into unity under the truth of Christ Jesus.

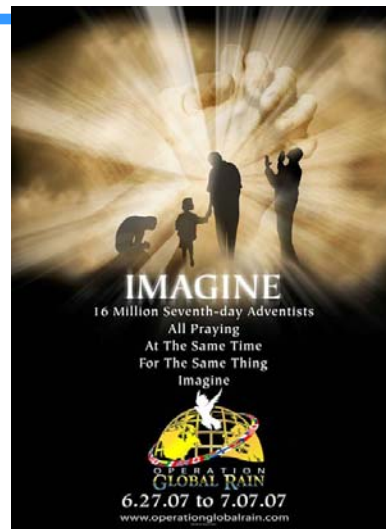

From June 26, to July 7, church families from around the globe will gather to pray for revival and reformation. Unlike our usual revivals, there will be no featured speaker or evangelist, rather the church will gather together united in their petition of the Holy Spirit to help us overcome our sins and to unite us in the truth and love of Jesus Christ. The pen of inspiration writes: “The third angel’s message is swelling into a loud cry, and you must not feel at liberty to neglect the present duty, and still entertain the idea that at some future time you will be the recipients of great blessing, when without any effort on your part a wonderful revival will take place. . .

. Today you are to have your vessel purified, that it may be ready for the heavenly dew, ready for the showers of the latter rain; for the latter rain will come, and the blessing of God will fill every soul that is purified from every defilement. It is our work today to yield our souls to Christ, that we may be fitted for the time of refreshing from the presence of the Lord--fitted for the baptism of the Holy Spirit {Evangelism 701}.”

Currently, over 1200 Seventh-day Adventist Churches around the world have registered to participate in this revival. For more information, please log on to www.operationglobalrain.com

There you can view updates, download materials and read articles from Doug Batchelor, G Edward Reid, Steve Wholberg Tom Waters, Jim Hohnberger, Ty Gibson, Marquis D. Johns, and many others on revival, reformation and receiving the latter rain. We pray that many will be involved as we seek to be fit vessels to receive God spirit and help usher in the coming of Jesus Christ in this generation.

The Dilemma of One Accord and the Third Angels Message in Verity by Pastor Ivor Myers

The most formidable obstacle standing between the people of God and the final outpouring of the Holy Spirit is the issue of unity. Of Pentecost, the Bible records that “when the day of Pentecost was fully come, they were all with one accord in one place.” Acts 2:1.

They were all, 120 people, on “one accord”. As difficult as it may seem to get 120 on one accord, imagine the task at hand when thinking of the millions of seventh-day Adventists around the world. To complicate the issue, just consider some of the things that cause division in the church. There are the matters of music, conservatism versus liberalism, race, dress, Spirit of prophecy, the nature of Christ, righteousness by faith. The list can go on and on. Will God’s people ever be able to be one “one accord” so that the spirit may be poured out? The answer is an encouraging and necessary yes! How?

In 1888, a message was given to this church that was calcu-

“When we truly understand and receive justification by faith of Jesus, we are so awed at what He did for us, that we not only become recipients of His faith, but we extend that same faith to others.”

lated to bring God's people into unity. That message must become our unity cry. Ellen White said of it, "The Lord in His great mercy sent a most precious message to His people through Elders [E.J.] Waggoner and [A.T.] Jones. This message was to bring more prominently before the world the uplifted Saviour, the sacrifice for the sins of the whole world. It presented justification through faith in the Surety; it invited the people to receive the righteousness of Christ, which is made manifest in obedience to all the commandments of God. Many had lost sight of Jesus." LDE 200

Again, she wrote, "The time of test is just upon us, for the loud cry of the third angel has already begun in the revelation of the righteousness of Christ, the sin-pardoning Redeemer. This is the beginning of the light of the angel whose glory shall fill the whole earth. {1SM 362.4}

She summed it up well in these words, "Several have written to me, inquiring if the message of justification by faith is the third angel's message, and I have answered, "It is the third angel's message in verity."-- Review and Herald, April 1, 1890.

"Justification by faith", "the righteousness of Christ, the sin pardoning Redeemer"...this is the message we are to receive and unite upon. But what does this mean for us? What is justification anyway? And how does the acceptance of this message enable us to receive the latter rain?

Justification means to be made right. And we are justified, or made right by the faith of Jesus, and faith in Jesus. The third angel's message ends with these words:

Rev 14:12 "Here is the patience of the saints: here are they that keep the commandments of God, and the faith of Jesus."

The Faith of Jesus. This is what justifies of. Notice again:

Gal 2:16 "Knowing that a man is not justified by the works of the law, but by the faith of Jesus Christ, even we have believed in Jesus Christ, that we might be justified by the faith of Christ, and not by the works of the law: for by the works of the law shall no flesh be justified."

How is it that Christ's faith justified us? The answer is profound. You see, faith looks upon present reality and sees something different than the natural eye. Faith sees the things that are not as though they were. Now listen to how Jesus faith justified us.

Rom 5:6-10 "For when we were yet without strength, in due time Christ died for the ungodly. For scarcely for a righteous man will one die: yet peradventure for a good man some would even dare to die. But God commended his love toward us, in that, while we were yet sinners, Christ died for us. Much more then, being now justified by his blood, we shall be saved from wrath through him. For if, when we were enemies, we were reconciled to God by the death of his Son, much more, being reconciled, we shall be saved by his life."

When Jesus looked upon humanity, he saw a wretched sight. But by faith, he saw us for what we could be through Him. And he justified us, by His faith in what God could do in us. While were his enemies, he justified us by his faith. Justified means "just-as-if-I'd" never sinned. While we were yet His enemies Christ extended to us justification. He saw us, just as if we'd never sinned. Now how does this incredible truth help prepare us to receive God's spirit?

When we truly understand and receive justification by faith of Jesus, we are so awed at what He did for us, that we not only become recipients of His faith, but we extend that same faith to others. We in turn see others "just as if" they had never wronged us. (See the parable of the wicked servant who was forgive his debt, yet held account of others who owed him. Mt.18:23-35). And is this not the great issue that currently keeps us divided? We are unwilling to forgive, unwilling to see each other as Christ saw us. If someone disagrees with us, we are ready to hate them with "Godly hatred". We cannot pray with our brother or sister because we view them as heathens. We hold record of each other's sins and slights, instead of forgiving regardless of the other asking or not asking.

If we truly understand this message, justification by faith as the verity of the third angels message, we will cease to hold grudges against one another, and will cease "to justify" why we cannot pray together in a true spirit of unity.

Ellen White wrote, "What is justification by faith? It is the work of God in laying the glory of man in the dust, and doing for man that which it is not in his power to do for himself. When men see their own nothingness, they are prepared to be clothed with the righteousness of Christ. {FLB 111.2}.

Justification by faith, the third angel's message in verity, lays man's glory in the dust. How? By telling us that nothing we do, none of our works merit us to Christ. It is all his glory and none of ours. This lays our self-glorifying in the dust. Isaiah experienced this kind of self-realization when he cried, "Then said I, Woe is me! for I am undone; because I am a man of unclean lips, and I dwell in the midst of a people of unclean lips: for mine eyes have seen the King, the LORD of hosts." Isa.6:5.

Commenting on this Ellen white says, "Isaiah had denounced the sin of others; but now he sees himself exposed to the same condemnation he had pronounced upon them. He had been satisfied with a cold, lifeless ceremony in his worship of God. He had not known this until the vision was given him of the Lord. How little now appeared his wisdom and talents as he looked upon the sacredness and majesty of the sanctuary. How unworthy he was! how unfitted for sacred service! His view of himself might be expressed in the language of the apostle Paul, "O wretched man that I am! who shall deliver me from the body of this death?" {4BC 1139.1}

Have you ever noticed how it's the other people that are always presented as Laodecia? Everyone accuses everybody else as the cause of lukewarmness. When the third angels message in verity is received, the faith of Jesus, we will cease to point the finger at others, and genuinely realize our own heart conditions. I am the one that becomes "miserable, wretched...naked...blind". The "straight testimony" becomes applicable to me.

When men see their own nothingness, they are prepared to be clothed with the righteousness of Christ. {FLB 111.2}. It is this nothingness upon which we must unite. We must unite upon the fact that we are all "wretched, and miserable, and poor, and blind, and naked". Our glory, our desire to be the greatest (even in righteous things) must be laid in the dust and we must accept that we can be justified only as we realize (1) our nothingness and (2) Christ our righteousness. Then we will no longer compare ourselves among ourselves, for we will realize that we are all in the same boat, wretched and in need of the Holy Spirit. This is the unifying factor, our nothingness, and Christ's righteousness. It is only nature, human nature to blame others in order to justify self. There are many debates about the nature of Christ. One can get the answer to this question wrong and still be saved. But there is a greater question, one we cannot get wrong and still be saved. That question is, Which nature do I have? If it is not the one found in 2 Peter 1:4, we are indeed in trouble regardless of our stance on the human nature of Christ. "Whereby are given unto us exceeding great and precious promises: that by these ye might be partakers of the divine nature, having escaped the corruption that is in the world through lust." 2 Peter 1:4. We need the divine nature of Christ!

Without accepting this message, the third angel's message in verity, we can never expect to receive the rain. Only this can bring us on one accord. All our knowledge of truth avails to nothing without the righteousness of Christ lived out in a practical manner.

"The greatest deception of the human mind in Christ's day was that a mere assent to the truth constitutes righteousness. In all human experience a theoretical knowledge of the truth has been proved to be insufficient for the saving of the soul. It does not bring forth the fruits of righteousness. A jealous regard for what is termed theological truth often accompanies a hatred of genuine truth as made manifest in life. The darkest chapters of history are burdened with the record of crimes committed by bigoted religionists. The Pharisees claimed to be children of Abraham, and boasted of their possession of the oracles of God; yet these advantages did not preserve them from selfishness, malignity, greed for gain, and the basest hypocrisy. They thought themselves the greatest religionists of the world, but their so-called orthodoxy led them to crucify tThe same danger still exists. Many take it for granted that they are Christians, simply because they subscribe to certain theological tenets. But they have not brought the truth

"When men see their own nothingness, they are prepared to be clothed with the righteousness of Christ."

One Accord Conclusion...

into practical life. he Lord of glory. They have not believed and loved it, therefore they have not received the power and grace that come through sanctification of the truth. Men may profess faith in the truth; but if it does not make them sincere, kind, patient, forbearing, heavenly-minded, it is a curse to its possessors, and through their influence it is a curse to the world. {DA 309.3}(emphasis added)

"The first disciples went forth preaching the word. They revealed Christ in their lives. And the Lord worked with them, "confirming the word with signs following." Mark 16:20. These disciples prepared themselves for their work. Before the day of Pentecost they met together, and put away all differences. They were of one accord. They believed Christ's promise that the blessing would be given, and they prayed in faith." {DA 827.1}.

Note that they did not debate all differences, instead, they put them away. They knew that if they were spirit filled, all differences would take care of themselves, for they would all be humbled enough to take rebuke, to learn, and to admit were mistakes had been made (Remember Paul's rebuke to Peter, and God's revelation to Peter about his faulty concept of Gentiles in Acts 7).

But there is more to this message of justification that must be accepted in order to be prepared for the latter rain.

"Justification" means that there is an explainable cause for our actions. An understanding of justification as it relates to sin is the key to victory over sin. Justification is the state of being right. Again, Ellen White writes, "The thought that the righteousness of Christ is imputed to us, not because of any merit on our part, but as a free gift from God, is a precious thought. The enemy of God and man is not willing that this truth should be clearly presented; for he knows that if the people receive it fully, his power will be broken. {GW92 103.2}

The Beast and the Abyss series, soon at your local ABC!!

Power of the Lamb Products @ your local ABC

As reported in our last issue, Pacific Press has now published Pastor Myers's Escape from the Black-hole autobiography, while

Review and Herald will publish a junior version specifically geared to young people. Plans are now underway to also produce an audio book of this project read by Pastor Myers himself. Also coming soon to your local Adventist Book Center are two of Power of the Lamb Ministries most requested DVDs, Escape from the Black-hole and The Beast from The Abyss.

The Escape from the Blackhole DVD features the testimony of Pastor Myers's escape from the hip-hop industry. Filmed in Jamaica, Pastor Myers provides profound insights on how he escape the lure of fame and fortune to accept the exceeding riches of the grace of Jesus Christ. The DVD also features a slide-show chronicling Pastor Myers's conversion experience.

The Beast From the Abyss is a three DVD set that examines how hip-hop/rock music and the current unrestrained entertainment culture is tied into the prophecy of Revelation 11 and the rise of the French Revolution. Using the word of God, Spirit of Prophecy, and history, Pastor Myers provides a powerful case of how the entertainment industry is tied to the mass deception the enemy is propagating to the world in these last days and concludes with how to overcome this deception.

We praise God for opening the way for these important resources to be available at our local ABC's to be a help to our fellow brothers and sisters who are seeking these materials to edify their congregations to the keys to escaping the blackhole and overcoming the beast.

Coming soon, Battles of Faith: Art of War on DVD. Battles of Faith Aired on 3 ABN Sun at 1:30 am PDT & 9:00 pm PDT Wed. at 1:30 am & 4:00 pm PDT.

Power of the Lamb @ 3 ABN

On the first weekend of May, Ivor and Atonite Myers co-hosted 3

ABN's Ten Commandments Day Weekend. This program brought prominent ministers of the Adventist Church to emphasize the importance of the ten commandments as a binding and essential aspect of God's plan of salvation.

Battles of Faith continues to air on 3 ABN.

And finally, look for continued updates on operation global rain on 3 ABN. Already, Pastor Myers was featured on 3 ABN today and more announcement will come as we draw to the days of revival.

Lighting the Globe with the gospel: Mission Report

Power of the Lamb Ministries is blessed to minister throughout the globe declaring the gospel truth of preparing for the soon return of Christ Jesus. In 2006, we were privileged to accept invitations to London, England, and to the beautiful Pacific beaches of the Hawaiian Islands. These last few months have been especially fruitful as the Lord opened new doors for our ministry to have an opportunity to reach more souls to receive the invitation to accept Jesus.

From December 27 to 31st, the Myers family had the privilege of participating in the General Youth Conference (GYC) at the convention center in Baltimore, Maryland. GYC is an annual meeting organized by faithful Seventh-day Adventist pastors and lay people to have a special gathering of young people who have an intense desire to spread the everlasting gospel to all the world in this generation. This year, nearly 4,000 people attended and heard life changing messages from David Asscherick, Samuel Koranteng-Pipim, Peter Gregory, C.D. Brooks, Jeffrey Rosario and many other men and women of God that served as presenters

Pastor Myers had the privilege to conduct a four part workshop on Music and Recreation for GYC. For the first part of the series, Pastor Myers presented The Beast in the Abyss. Being one of his most requested presentations; Pastor Myers traces the history of modern popular music from Revelation 11 and the rise of the secular and licentious spirit of the French Revolution. Unknown to Pastor Myers, Dr. C.D. Brooks was in the audience listening to the presentation and later approached Pastor Myers and told him that he was blessed by the clarity of evidence that was presented. Pastor Myers was humbled to have such encouragement from one of the leading evangelists of our faith.

The second presentation was called the Holy Rebellion, where Pastor Myers traces the spirit and origins of Contemporary Christian ating the distinction between the world and the church. For the third presentation, Pastor Myers presented Star Wars, where he shared from the word of God that the true stars are those who have committed their lives to Jesus Christ and share the truths of His love to all the world (Daniel 12:1-2) and that the luminaries in entertainment are merely fallen stars. At the conclusion of this presentation, Pastor Myers made an appeal for those who want to commit themselves to allow God to free them from the chains of the entertainment industry. Nearly 30 individuals took their stand.

Music, and how the CCM movement is seeking a revolution within Christianity by obliter-

For the final presentation, Pastor Myers shared "Enter-Tain-Ment." Here Pastor Myers shared with the congregation that the true entertainers are those who take their stand with God in these last days. As we are in the midst of the Great Controversy, all the universe is watching with great interest of the drama unfolding of the battle between good and evil to see whether there will be a people who will vindicate the character of God through the power of Christ Jesus. Pastor Myers pointed to his personal experience of how spiritual things is far more fulfilling than the things of this world, and admonished the congregation to be part of the stars of Heaven in these last days.

In each workshop almost every seat was filled with sincere young people, with some workshops so full that people stood in the back and side walls to hear the seminars. After each workshop, young people approached Pastor Myers to discuss even further the topics that were presented. Pastor Myers had the good fortune to be assisted by his dear friend and fellow pastor Marquis D. Johns, who also escaped the black-hole of the entertainment industry and has dedicated his energies to minister to young people as a pastor and evangelist.

GYC also was an opportunity to have reunions with friends and family. Ivor's brother Sean and his wife Veronica also attended the conference. Ivor and Atonte also had a chance to catch up with Tom and Elaine Waters, various members of Make It Plain Ministries, The Final Generation Media Ministry team, and the Rosario brothers from Radiant Living. It was also a valuable time to network as Power of the Lamb Ministries had a good fortune of having lunch with Dr. C.D. Brooks, finally meet Peter Gregory and have a wonderful conversation with David Asscherick.

In February of 2007, Pastor Myers traveled to Michigan to speak for a weekend spiritual retreat for CAMPUS Ministries. CAMPUS is a Michigan Conference sponsored student missionary organization that ministers to the University of Michigan that is under the spiritual leadership of Dr. Samuel Koranteng-Pipim, Pastors' Randy Skeete, Steven Conway, and Justin Kim.

For this weekend revival, Pastor Myers conducted a seminar on music and was received well by the attendees. One attendee on her internet blog wrote, "It was extremely informative ... an excellent presentation intertwining music with passages from Ezekiel, Deuteronomy, and Revelation ... --a must hear presentation!"

The following month, Pastor Myers headlined the annual Restoration revival series at Loma Linda University. Organized by faithful university students, Restoration seeks to give the Loma Linda community an opportunity to learn of the beautiful pillars of the Advent message. In years past, Restoration speakers included Evangelist Peter Gregory, Pastor David Asscherick, and Pastor Randy Skeete.

Lighting the Globe with the gospel: Mission Spotlight

Over 800 souls came to hear the preaching of the word for Restoration on Sabbath.

When the appeal was given, many came forward to reconnect their lives to Christ.

The Restoration Team with the Myers family

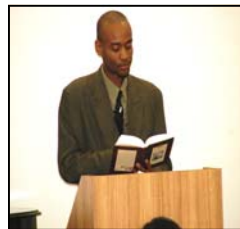

This year, Pastor Myers was blessed to have a wonderful opportunity to minister to the students in the Loma Linda area.

The meetings were held between March 5 to 10, and throughout the work week, Pastor Myers preached twice. Lunch meetings were held at the library auditorium on the Loma Linda campus, while the evening meetings for the first three nights were held at the Campus Hills SDA Church. Lunch meetings were filled to capacity while the evening meetings at the Campus Hills Church averaged nearly 300 people! We praise God for the willingness of the students to put aside their busy schedules to listen to the preaching of the gospel. We were also told that students from La Sierra University, high school students from Loma Linda and Redlands Academy, and employees from the Loma Linda Hospital faithfully attended, amongst them, many non-Adventists.

On Thursday evening, the meeting was held back at the library auditorium, and because of the swelling interest in the community, the organizers established an overflow room with close circuit television for those who could not get a seat in the Auditorium. Sabbath services were held at the gymnasium of the Loma Linda Filipino SDA Church where the meetings peaked to over 800 attendees. Messages that Pastor Myers presented included elements from his Beast from the Abyss, Art of War, Faith World, and Song of Solomon series. Pastor Myers also presented his personal testimony and several messages focusing on preparation for the latter rain in vein of the upcoming Operation Global Rain campaign. On the final meeting of the series, Pastor Myers preached his City of Fire: Love Story message dealing with the book of Revelation in connection with the Song of Solomon, where many accepted the call to be on fire for God and to be revived to do God's work. You can download and listen to the messages from the restoration series at www.restorationministry.net. We certainly were blessed and privileged to work with Restoration Ministries and wish them well as they continue to minister to the students at Loma Linda University and the surrounding communities.

Pastor Sean Myers conducted a follow-up revival in the Loma Linda area. Sean preached at the Loma Linda Filipino SDA Church, Advent Hope Sabbath School, San Bernardino Indonesian Church, and at the Drayson Center Prophecy Class. Sean preached messages dealing with the second angels' message and the need for revival and reformation. Sean also had many people coming up to him after the meetings to discuss in deeper detail; the topics he presented. Many were blessed to gain a better understanding of godly living in these last days.

The weekend immediately after the Restoration series,

From there, in April, Ivor and Atonte traveled up to Vancouver, British Columbia for the third annual Acts for Christ Youth Conference joining David Gates, Randy Skeete, Matthew Para, and the Radiant Living Team as the featured presenters. Over 400 young people attended the meetings. Pastor Myers did a five part seminar dealing with Christian lifestyle issues and had the privilege of preaching for Sabbath Divine Hour. The divine hour message was titled "Set it Off: Sleeper Cells," a message challenging the young people to awake and finish the work in this generation. At the conclusion of the conference, 60 young people took their stands for baptism and 40 committed their lives to oversea missions.

It has certainly been an eventful 2007 thus far, and as we approach the half way mark of this year, we ask that you continue to keep us in prayer as we continue to do God's work in being used as instruments of revival and reformation to our dear church in these last days.

Youth Devotional by Joshua Myers

God blessed Abraham in many ways. God promised that Abraham would be the father of a great nation, and that his descendants would be as the sands of the sea. However, when they went to Egypt, his faith died down. He didn't trust God to protect his wife, Sarah. Then he tried to take matters into his own hands, by lying to the king. Thinking that he could get away with this sin, the king took his wife .

Before he knew it. When Abraham realized what he had done, he was very sorry. And the wonderful part about the story was that when he asked for forgiveness, God forgave him.

Many young people today try to take matters into their own hands by doing things their own way and thinking that they are justified. They are saying to God, "I'll do what you want me to do, but I'll do it my own way". But if they are sincere, God will forgive them. Let us listen to God and follow His instructions today.
